This memorandum transmits the final examination report on costs claimed by Social Impact, Inc. (Social) on in-scope awards and subawards for each of the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2014. The U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) Office of Acquisition and Assistance, Cost, Audit and Support Division contracted with the independent certified public accounting firm of Kearney & Company, P.C. to conduct the audit. The audit firm stated that it performed its examination in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the standards applicable to attestation engagements contained in generally accepted government auditing standards. The audit firm is responsible for the enclosed report and the conclusions expressed in it. We do not express an opinion on whether the costs claimed by Social on in-scope awards and subawards are allowable, allocable, and reasonable in accordance with award terms; Part 31 of the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR); Agency for International Development Acquisition Regulation (AIDAR); Department of State Standardized Regulation (DSSR); and 2 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, as applicable, in all material respects.¹

The examination's objective was to express an opinion on whether the costs claimed by Social on in-scope awards and subawards are allowable, allocable, and reasonable in accordance with award terms; Part 31 of the FAR; AIDAR; DSSR; and 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, as applicable. adjusted total costs booked to date and the cumulative amount billed, by award or subaward, for each of the years ended December 31, 2013, and 2014, and reported any over/under-billings. The audit firm designed its testing procedures to evaluate the internal control environment surrounding Social's subcontract management process and to determine whether Social had adequate controls in place for monitoring subcontract costs. The audit firm examined USAID's incurred costs of $32,180,755 for the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2013, and 2014.

The audit firm expressed an unmodified opinion that costs claimed by Social on in-scope awards and subawards for the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2013, and 2014 are allowable, allocable, and reasonable in accordance with award terms; Part 31 of the FAR; AIDAR; DSSR; and 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, as applicable. The audit firm did not question any direct costs or recommend changes to the indirect cost rates. In addition, the audit firm's examination did not disclose any findings required to be reported.

We appreciate the assistance extended during the engagement.
