

MEMORANDUM

DATE: May 1, 2018

TO: USAID/Management/Office of Acquisition and Assistance/Cost Audit and Support Division, Branch Chief, David McNeil

FROM: Director of External Financial Audits, Abdoulaye Gueye /s/

SUBJECT: Examination of Costs Claimed for aXseum Solutions, LLC for the Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2012 (3-000-18-029-1)

This memorandum transmits the final audit report on the examination of costs claimed for aXseum Solutions, LLC's (XS) incurred cost proposal (ICP) for the fiscal year (FY) ended December 31, 2012. The U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) Office of Acquisition and Assistance, Cost, Audit, and Support Division contracted with Kearney & Company to conduct the audit. The contract required Kearney & Company to perform the audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards.

Kearney & Company states that it performed its audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. Kearney & Company is responsible for the enclosed report and the conclusions expressed in it. We do not express an opinion on XS's ICP submitted for December 31, 2012, as well as, management's assertions over the allowability of the incurred costs as reported in the ICPs.<sup>1</sup>

The objection of this examination was to express an opinion on whether the costs claimed by XS on in-scope contracts and subcontracts for the FY ended December 31, 2012 are allowable, allocable, and reasonable in accordance with contract terms; Part 31 of the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR); Agency for International Development Acquisition Regulations (AIDAR), Department of State Standardized Regulations (DSSR), and 2 Code of Federal Regulation (CFR) 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, as applicable. To answer the objective, Kearney & Company designed its testing procedures to evaluate the internal control environment surrounding XS's subcontract management process and verify that adequate coverage for monitoring subcontractor costs existed over XS's claimed incurred costs related to subcontractor billings. Its examination also included evaluating the claimed costs reported in the ICPs for compliance with the applicable requirements contained in the FAR, AIDAR, DSSR and other specific contract provisions. Providing an opinion on compliance with specific provisions was not an objective of its examination; accordingly, Kearney &

<sup>1</sup> We reviewed the audit firm's report for conformity with professional reporting standards. Our desk reviews are typically performed to identify any items needing clarification or issues requiring management attention. Desk reviews are limited to review of the audit report itself and excludes review of the auditor's supporting working papers; they are not designed to enable us to directly evaluate the quality of the audit performed.

Company did not express such an opinion. Kearney & Company audited $ $7,729,254 of XS's incurred costs for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012 of which $1,063,919 represents USAID's sole award.

Kearney & Company expressed an unmodified opinion that costs claimed by XS on in-scope contracts and subcontracts for the FY ended December 31, 2012 are allowable, allocable, and reasonable in accordance with contract terms; Part 31 of the FAR; AIDAR; DSSR; and 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, as applicable. Kearney & Company did not render an opinion on the effectiveness of the contractor's accounting systems and related internal controls. The auditors' examination did not disclose any findings that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards. Kearney & Company questioned ineligible direct costs of $298 and unsupported direct costs of $299 applicable to USAID.
