

MEMORANDUM

DATE: June 20, 2019

TO: USAID/Management/Office of Acquisition and Assistance/Cost Audit and Support Division, Branch Chief, David McNeil

FROM: Acting Director of External Financial Audits Division, Steven Shea /s/

SUBJECT: Performance Audit of CAMRIS International, Inc.'s Accounting System Administration (3-000-19-026-1)

This memorandum transmits the final audit report on the adequacy of the accounting system administration for CAMRIS International, Inc. (CAMRIS) for the period from November 2018 to March 2019. The U.S. Agency for International Development's (USAID) Office of Acquisition and Assistance, Cost Audit and Support Division contracted with the independent certified public accounting firm Booth Management Consulting LLC to conduct the audit. The audit firm stated that the contract required the audit firm to perform the audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards.

The audit firm states that it performed its audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. The audit firm is responsible for the enclosed report and the conclusions expressed in it. We do not express an opinion on the adequacy of CAMRIS' accounting system.¹

The audit objectives were to evaluate whether CAMRIS' has established an adequate accounting system and determine whether CAMRIS' accounting system (1) complies with applicable Federal laws and regulations; (2) ensures adequate segregation of cost billing and reporting purposes; (3) adequately accumulates, segregates, and identifies costs under U.S. Government awards; and (4) allows for the proper segregation between direct, indirect, and unallowable costs in compliance with applicable Government regulations. To answer the audit objectives, the audit firm: designed its testing procedures to obtain an understanding of internal control for accumulating and billing costs under Government contracts; examined evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the data and records evaluated; and assessed the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the contractor.

The audit firm concluded that CAMRIS' accounting system, and related internal control policies and procedures, are adequate for accumulating and billing costs under Government contracts. The audit firm did not identify any findings during its performance audit.

We appreciate the assistance extended during the engagement.
