

OPE-P IN BRIEF

The 7th quarterly report submitted by the Lead Inspector General for Operation Pacific Eagle–Philippines (OPE-P) summarizes the quarter's key events and oversight of the U.S. mission to support the Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP) in their fight against ISIS–East Asia (ISIS-EA) and other terrorist organizations.

First Suicide Bombing Committed by a Philippine National

pp. 7-8

- On June 28, a suicide attack by ISIS-EA on an AFP camp killed 5 and wounded 22.
- At least one of the 2 attackers was identified as a native Filipino.
- U.S. and Philippine officials are reassessing previous assumptions that the Filipino people are culturally averse to suicide bombing.
- The attack also challenges the notion that Philippine jihadists have adopted the ISIS "brand" while rejecting its extremist ideology.

AFP Struggles to Combat ISIS-EA Kidnap-for-Ransom Operations

pp. 10-11

- On April 6, an AFP rescue mission for 3 hostages freed 1, but left 1 dead and 1 in critical condition.
- On May 31, a Dutch hostage held by ISIS-EA since 2012 was killed attempting to escape during a firefight between his captors and the AFP.
- On June 18, Philippine kidnap-for-ransom gangs raided
 2 fishing boats and abducted 10 crew members off the coast of Malaysia.

U.S. Training of Philippine Partners Focuses on Counterterrorism

pp. 11-15

- 7,500 U.S. and Philippine troops participated in an annual training exercise, which included maritime security, close air support, amphibious, and humanitarian/civic operations.
- DoS provided training to Philippine law enforcement in crisis response and critical infrastructure security.
- The AFP received and Philippine law enforcement requested counterterrorism training from Israel.

Bangsamoro Government Faces Initial Challenges

pp. 15-17

- The new semi-autonomous regional government in the southern Philippines is led by former militants with little or no governing experience.
- The Bangsamoro government began its first months of work without a budget or pay.
- Successful self-governance could defuse jihadist sentiments, but failure could embolden extremists.
- Questions remain about how the Bangsamoro government will integrate 40,000 former militants into civilian life.

DoD Modifies Order Governing OPE-P

p. 6

- The new order removes the "contingency operation" designation that had been in place since 2017.
- The DoD will continue to use overseas contingency operations funds for activities supporting OPE-P.

Conflict Continues to Disrupt Local Communities

pp. 11-12

- Fighting between the AFP and ISIS-EA temporarily displaced 51,000 residents, most of whom were able to return home.
- USAID funding focused on rebuilding communities and countering violent extremism.
- Debris removal, unexploded ordnance, and contractor disputes continued to delay reconstruction of Marawi, leaving 66,000 displaced indefinitely.

Lead IG Oversight Activity

pp. 24-26

- Lead IG agencies completed 2 reports, including an audit that found DoD aviation training facilities were inadequate to meet mission needs.
- Lead IG and partner agencies coordinated on 2 open investigations and had 4 oversight projects ongoing.
