TO: USAID/Management/Office of Acquisition and Assistance/Cost Audit and Support Division, Acting Supervisory Auditor, Eleanor C. Jefferson

FROM: Director of External Financial Audits Division (IG/A/EFA), David A. McNeil for Steven Shea/s/

SUBJECT: Examination of Costs Claimed for DevTech Systems, Inc. For the Fiscal Years December 31, 2014, 2015, and 2016 (3-000-20-048-I)

This memorandum transmits the final examination report on DevTech Systems, Inc. (DevTech) on in-scope contracts and subcontracts for the fiscal years (FYs) December 31, 2014, 2015, and 2016. The U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) Office of Acquisition and Assistance, Cost, Audit, and Support Division contracted with the independent certified public accounting firm of Booth Management Consulting, LLC to conduct the examination. The audit firm stated that it performed its examination in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the standards applicable to attestation engagements contained in generally accepted government auditing standards. The audit firm is responsible for the enclosed report and the conclusions expressed in it. We do not express an opinion on whether costs claimed by DevTech on in-scope contracts and subcontracts for the FYs December 31, 2014, 2015, and 2016 are allowable, allocable and reasonable in accordance with award terms; Part 31 of the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR); Agency for International Development Acquisition Regulation (AIDAR); Department of State Standardized Regulation (DSSR); and 2 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, as applicable.1

The examination’s objective was to express an opinion on whether the costs claimed by DevTech on in-scope contracts and subcontracts for the FYs December 31, 2014, 2015, and 2016 are allowable, allocable, and reasonable in accordance with award terms; Part 31 of the FAR; AIDAR; DSSR; and 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, as applicable. To answer the examination's objective, Booth Management Consulting, LLC designed its testing procedures to evaluate the internal control environment surrounding DevTech’s subcontract management process and to verify that DevTech had adequate controls in place for monitoring subcontractor costs. Its examination included the reconciliation of the adjusted total costs booked to date and the cumulative amount billed, by award or subaward and reporting any over/under-billings. The audit firm examined USAID incurred costs of $15,511,727 for the FYs December 31, 2014, 2015, and 2016.

Booth Management Consulting, LLC expressed an unqualified opinion that costs claimed by DevTech on in-scope contracts and subcontracts for the FYs December 31, 2014, 2015, and 2016 are allowable, allocable, and reasonable in accordance with award terms; Part 31 of the FAR; AIDAR; DSSR; and 2 CFR 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, as applicable. Booth Management Consulting, LLC’s examination did not disclose any findings that are required to be reported under government auditing standards. There were no questioned costs.

We appreciate the assistance extended during the engagement.
