TO: USAID/Colombia Mission Director, Lawrence Sacks

FROM: USAID OIG Latin America and Caribbean (LAC) Regional Office, Senior Auditor, John Vernon /s/

This memorandum transmits the final audit report on the Bitter Cassava for a Sweet Milk Activity in Colombia. Cooperativa Colanta (Colanta) contracted with the independent certified public accounting firm BDO Audit, S.A. to conduct the audit. The audit firm stated that it performed its audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards and OIG Guidelines for Financial Audits Contracted by Foreign Recipients.¹ However, it did not have an external peer review because such program is not offered in Colombia. The audit firm is responsible for the enclosed report and the conclusions expressed in it. We do not express an opinion on Colanta's fund accountability statement; the effectiveness of its internal control; or its compliance with the award, laws, and regulations.²

The audit objectives were to (1) express an opinion on whether the fund accountability statement for the period audited, was presented fairly, in all material respects; (2) evaluate Colanta's internal controls; and (3) determine whether Colanta complied with award terms and applicable laws and regulations. To answer the audit objectives, the audit firm reported that they assessed and tested the internal controls related to the project; compliance with applicable

¹ On June 30, 2017, USAID OIG rescinded its "Guidelines for Financial Audits Contracted by Foreign Recipients," recognizing the Agency's role to impose requirements on its implementing partners and contractors as a management function. This contracted audit, however, follows the Guidelines.

² We reviewed the audit firm's report for conformity with professional reporting standards. Desk reviews are limited to review of the audit report itself and excludes review of the auditor's supporting working papers; they are not designed to enable us to directly evaluate the quality of the audit performed.

laws, regulations, the agreement's provisions; and reviewed project expenditures. The audit covered $971,323 of USAID expenditures for the audited period.

The audit firm concluded the fund accountability statement presented fairly, in all material respects, program revenues and costs incurred under the award for the period audited.

The audit firm did not identify any material weaknesses in internal control or instances of material noncompliance with applicable laws, regulations, and agreement terms.

During our desk review, we noted several minor issues which the audit firm should consider for future audit reports. We presented these issues in a memo to controller, dated September 25, 2020.

Based on the results of the desk review, OIG is not making any recommendation to USAID/Colombia.

OIG does not routinely distribute independent public accounting reports beyond the immediate addressees because a high percentage of these reports contain information restricted from release under the Trade Secrets Act, 18 U.S.C. 1905 and Freedom of Information Act Exemption Four, 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4) ("commercial or financial information obtained from a person that is privileged or confidential").
