National Interest With Global Reach

USAID OIG oversees U.S. foreign assistance by investigating, auditing, inspecting, and evaluating the programs, operations, and personnel of USAID, Millennium Challenge Corporation, U.S. African Development Foundation, and Inter-American Foundation. Our oversight positively impacts vulnerable beneficiaries of global aid.

We conduct oversight from offices in Egypt, El Salvador, Germany, Haiti, Israel, Pakistan, the Philippines, Senegal, South Africa, Thailand, Uganda, and the United States. Our Foreign Service employees spend most of their careers overseas and our Civil Service employees are based at our headquarters in Washington, DC, or work remotely throughout the country.

Rewarding Careers

Audits, Evaluations, & Inspections

We conduct audits, inspections, and evaluations to improve the effectiveness, economy, efficiency, internal control, and compliance with requirements of foreign assistance programs.

Investigations

As a U.S. Federal law enforcement agency, we conduct criminal, civil, and administrative investigations into allegations of corruption, embezzlement, bribery, kickbacks, false claims, conflicts of interest, bid rigging, trafficking in persons, sexual exploitation and abuse, and other misconduct.

Management and Administration

We support colleagues across the agency in critical areas such as information technology, human resources, financial management, and procurement.

Allied Professions

We provide opportunities to apply your expertise in law, congressional affairs, organizational development, communications, and other specialties.

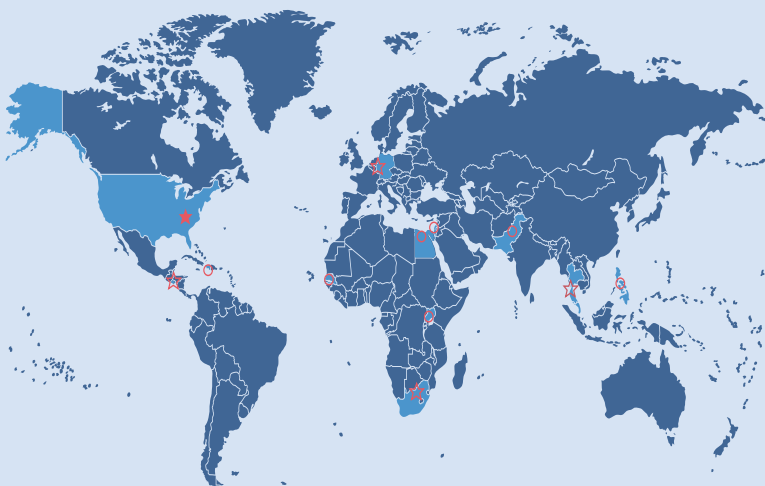

Competitive Salary and Benefits
